Disclaimer

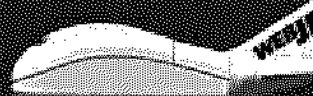

The views expressed in this presentation contain information from publicly available sources that have not been independently verified. No representation or warranty is made as to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of the information.

Forward looking information in this presentation has been provided in the form of a number of 'what if' scenarios. These scenarios have been prepared on the basis of assumptions that may prove to be incorrect. Nothing in this document should be construed as a forecast or a representation by Webjet Limited (WEB) or any other person as to future performance.

In particular:

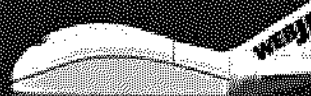

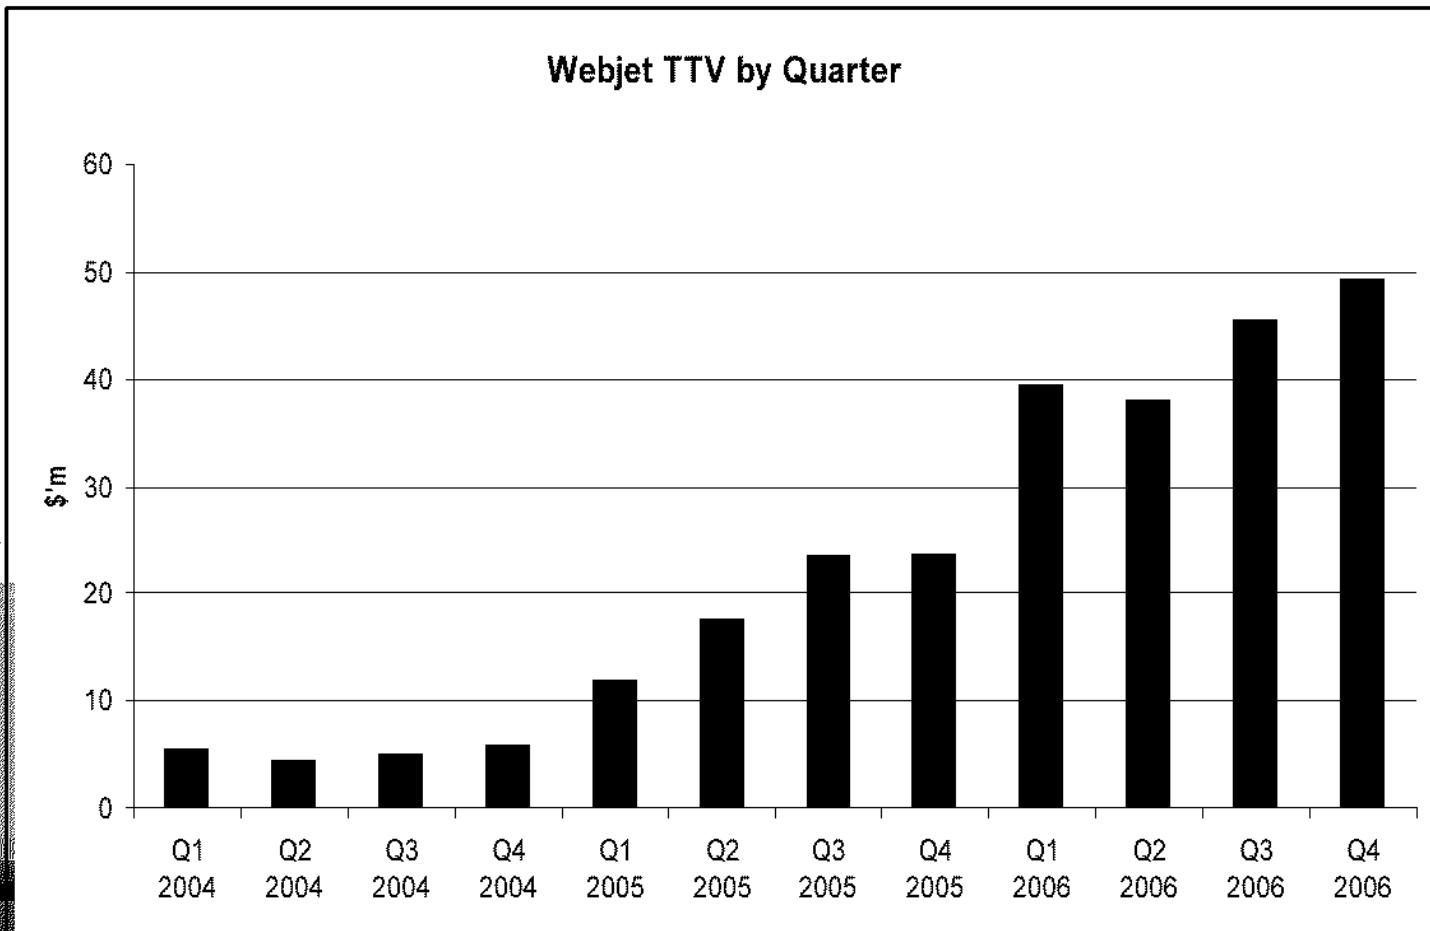

- the presentation includes no forecasts or budgets
- the travel industry is prone to being materially effected by factors such as terrorism, SARS and high oil prices
- that market conditions as they currently exist will continue substantially unchanged over the next 18 months
- that the Australian consumer acceptance of the internet as a vehicle for booking travel will continue to exhibit a level of growth similar to the experience of the last 12 months
- that there will be no material disruption due to strike or scheduled derangement domestically within the Australian travel market
- that media advertising rates remain similar to those prevailing over the last 12 months
- that current ACCC legislation continues largely unchanged insofar as it relates to retail pricing and competitive behavior

This presentation should not be relied upon as a recommendation or forecast by Webjet. Nothing in this release should be construed as either an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy or sell shares in any jurisdiction.

Overview

Australian beach culture.....with attitude

Home to Bondi Surf Bathers, the oldest life saving club in Australia established in 1906, Bondi's beach-centric reputation is long established. With its lifesavers, surfers, sun worshippers and barefoot locals Bondi is a definitive example of Sydney's city beach culture.

While the beach is popular, cross Campbell Parade and enjoy Bondi away from the sand. Take in the view of the Pacific from one of the laidback outdoor cafes or trendy restaurants that serve lively crowds with brunch, lunch and dinner. Watch for celebrities from behind your sunglasses. Don't have any? Bondi is the place to buy them, with an abundance of shops selling the whole gamut of fashionable surfwear and beach accessories or visit the popular beachside markets on Sundays.

Key Experiences

- Enjoy the outdoor dining scene and watch the passing parade of roller bladers, skateboarders and exercise fanatics pounding the promenade from the comfort of your chair.
- Take the Bondi to Bronte scenic cliff walk and reward yourself with fish and chips or a fresh mango whip at the Bronte end.
- Learn to surf with 'Lets Go Surfing'.
- Swim in the newly renovated Bondi Icebergs surf pool.
- Visit the Marine Discovery Centre or enjoy a seafood lunch or perhaps a gelato at the famous Bondi Pavilion.
- Down on the sand, partake in a lifesaving demonstration at Australia's oldest life saving club.
- Shop till you drop at the nearby Bondi Junction mall and Westfield Shopping Centre (the largest in the Southern Hemisphere).
